Milkiland invited Polish investors to Polish “Ostrowia” cheese plant

According to the official statement made by the company a group of Polish investors and analysts attended new “Ostrowia” cheese plant in Ostrów Mazowiecka town of Poland. The visit of the group was organized by Milkiland itself with assistance of UniCredit Polska. Guests were acquainted with CEO of the company EU Robert Mrozinski, who made presentation about Milkiland EU and its prospects and strategic goals in Poland, CIS and other geographies. Investors were given a tour around the plant itself where they were able to observe an entire production line, as well as the progress made with reconstruction of the plant and taste actual cheese produced by the company.

AgroInvest comment: With the increase of communication events with investors it makes us think that company might be looking to attract additional funds in the nearest future.
