News and Updates

Astarta has bought back its shares

According to the official information released by the Astarta on Warsaw Stock Exchange, the company has purchased 2 461 thousand of its own shares from the free float as it has been decided on the previous shareholders meeting of the company. Company has spent the total of USD 49,27 thousand at PLN 66.5 per share. Company is planning to buy back at least 500 000 shares from the free float in the future, which would account for 2% of the total free float volume (25 M shares). Price limit for the company is set at PLN 200 per share.

UkrAgroConsult comment: Company's price per share rose from PLN 65.50 per share to PLN 66.00 per share from June 10 to June 14, which is natural when there is a demand for shares from the company. Currently price per share decreased to PLN 63 per share.
